

SOCIAL MATTERS.

What is Going On Among Fashionable Washingtonians—Personal Notes.

Mrs. Windom expects to go to New York on Tuesday of this week to be absent for a fortnight. Miss Florence Windom, the young daughter, is pursuing her art studies in Boston and will not return to the city before December. Mrs. Windom and her family are still at No. 1422 Massachusetts Avenue. It is Mr. Wm. D. Windom, the son of the Secretary, who resides at No. 1737 F street, who has invited a company of musical people to meet Mrs. Webster on Tuesday evening, and not Secretary and Mrs. Windom, as has been an noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Sperry of Hartford have sent invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Helen Sperry, to Mr. Robert M. Scranton, on Wednesday evening, November 19, at 8 o'clock, in the Pearl Street Congregational Church. A reception at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Sperry, 137 Winthrop street, will follow the wedding. The groom is the son of Mr. Joseph A. Scranton, the member of Congress from Scranton, Pa., and is the editor of the Scranton Republican.

Mrs. Pollock's "soap bubble party," given to the children of the Free Kindergarten, on O street, recently, was a great success. Thirty-two children, whose parents are poor, but respectable, enjoyed the rare treat. The soap given the round over the kindergarten, for the use of the kindergarten. Mrs. Pollock requires each child to bring one penny a day to pay for his tuition.

Admiral Jas. E. Jouett has returned to the city from Sandy Spring, Md., and has located in the city for the winter.

Senator and Mrs. Hale have taken apartents at the Arms for the winter.

Senator and Mrs. McPherson will occupy their own house on Vermont avenue this winter.

Mrs. Greene of Fort Leavenworth is the guest of Mrs. A. Wilson, No. 2900 G street northwest.

Mrs. J. V. Lawrence of Yonkers, N. Y., is on a visit with her four younger children to her mother, Mrs. E. G. Dowd, at Prospect Cottage, Georgetown, where she will be glad to see old friends any evening after 7 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Woolley of Philadelphia are visiting the city and are at the Randal.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Walcott have returned from the north and are now settled at 1726 P street northwest.

Miss Fannie Boome has just returned from an extended visit in Philadelphia and New York state.

Miss Addie Gonsler is visiting her friend, Miss Laura Turner, of North Charles street, Baltimore.

Mrs. Edward P. Mertz, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. L. G. Hine, left for New York this forenoon to join Mr. Mertz, who has been there for the past week.

SHOOTING STARS.

One President may lead his party to Thanksgiving Day, but twenty can't make it happen.

THE M'K. T. B. AGAIN.

Jones—reading: "The wheat crop of this country and Canada for 1890 is eighty-one million bushels short of the crop of last year and—"

Brown: "Of course, it's that blasted McKinley tariff."

SQUARING HIS ACCOUNT.

Cabby: "Give me a dollar and call it square."

English: "But I cawn't do it, don't you know? The dead dollar isn't squish, don't you know?"

Mrs. "Disappointment in love often drives men to drink."

Mr. Yes, I never drank before I was married."

AN INFANT INDUSTRIAL.

The mills of the gods grind slowly, but they grind exceeding small; if they took away the tariff, they would hardly grind at all.

Mr. Calvin S. Brice of Ohio did not send this one:

The purity of politics can never go to waste.

So long as we shun the world A rainbow that is chased.

HARMONY FOR 1892.

Governor Hill: "What shall the band play?" Mr. Cleveland—blushing: "Hill to the chief, I presume."

The late SENOR VOLIO.

Funeral of the Costa Rican Minister—Requies Mass at St. Matthew's.

The funeral of Senator Frederico Volio, acting minister to this country from Costa Rica, who died Saturday of pneumonia, took place at 10 o'clock this morning from St. Matthew's Church with impressive ceremonies.

The casket was taken from the rooms of the dead man at the Elsmere to the church, where a low requiem mass was celebrated. The Secretary of State and the members of the diplomatic corps were in attendance. The Marine band furnished music and an escort was formed of the two troops of cavalry from Fort Myer under the command of Col. Carpenter.

The pall bearers were Senior Romero, minister to Mexico; Senor Valiente, minister from Chile; Senor Serrano from Peru; Senor Gómez from Colombia; Senor Jiménez from Brazil; Dr. Moore, assistant secretary of state; Hon. John W. Foster, minister to Italy; Col. O. H. Ernst, U.S.A., and Lieut. T. B. M. Mason, U.S.N.

The body was borne by six sailors from the U.S. ship "Olympia" and the band of the U.S. Marine band played the national anthem. The mourners were under the direction of Mr. Nevelon A. Brown, chief clerk of the State Department. The ushers were selected from the clerical force of the department, Messrs. Haywood, Hunt, Scarborough and Smith.

After the interment of the remains, the service was taken to Mount Olivet cemetery, and there placed in a vault prior to their removal to the dead man's home in South America. The heart was followed by a long line of carriages and preceded by the military. Lenois Enrique and Auseino Volio, brother and cousin of the deceased, were the chief mourners.

SKETCH OF THE DECEASED MINISTER.

The deceased diplomat was only thirty-two years of age, but he had already acquired an enviable reputation for ability and energy, and was well known throughout high honors for him in his native country. He was a man of pleasure, the jester of the diplomatic world, and his thoughtful, studious habits and nearly hairless head, the result of a large scale baldness before creating a demand that agents should be ready to fill his chair.
